Thanks Mark, we also added Antonello Ciotti, Commercial Director of Equipolymers (U.S. company) and President of COREPLA to the biz roundtable.

I'm writing some thank you notes/apologies to ones that we can't rejigger into the schedule this time and will keep an eye out for future embassy event invitation lists.

Cheers, [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy]

That would be fine [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy] If there is anyone else from the ENEA event that it would help to invite to the Roundtable event, we are open to that to help mend relations.

Mark

Hi Mark and Anna,

In the version you cleared, this business roundtable was for American companies.

Ecopneus is a limited non-profit tire recycling company based in Italy that was founded by six tire companies, including U.S. company Goodyear Dunlop (also on the Board of Directors) that we moved to the ENEA event. Now that ENEA fell off the schedule, we're wondering if we could invite Ecopneus to the biz roundtable.

Thanks, [Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy]

Hi Mark,

(...in case we still have a biz RT....)Originally we thought so, but Commerce said that these RT discussions are discreet, and in the past they have been candid and enjoyed the promise of anonymity in word and image. When clearing the paper, Commerce suggested there could be one photo with the Administrator and Charge facing the business people and only photograph the backs of their heads. I would rather have no photos than the weird dynamic of staging such a picture.

Looks ok to me, but I thought we were going to have photos at the top of the meeting.

Importance: High

Hi Anna and Mark,

Please clear this roundtable today. I'd like to get the rest in the pipeline and with your clearance, but wanted to see if I was on the right track before completing the others. Note there won't even be an embassy photographer at this one and it is Chatham House Rules-no attribution/social media.

Could I get clear confirmation that there will be no press at any event – only photos and whatever Lincoln decides to push on social media?

[REDACTED] needed to step out, but our final product for our Charge will also have the bios in alphabetical order.

Thanks, [REDACTED]

Subject: Leonard's staff

Hi Anna and Mark,

Can someone reach out to Mr. Leo's staff and get contact information? RSO needs more details about the entrances we'll use. We also have a TBD mass location on Thursday – is that at the Vatican as well?

Also, FCS said no press/Chatham House Rules at the business roundtable. This comes with the assumption that there won't even be pictures, unless it is just [REDACTED] and the Administrator with the backs of heads. I'll soon send that paper for you to clear.

Thanks, [REDACTED]
